

Daily Racing Form

VOL. VIII. NO. 39.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1902.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

ENTRIES CLOSE TOMORROW.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the conditions of two highly important lists of stakes which close for entries at midnight tomorrow. They are the stakes offered by the Westchester Racing Association and the Washington Jockey Club and collectively cover thirty-five fixtures of great value, a part of which are for the autumn meetings and two for the Bennings autumn meeting of 1903. In the lists are many of the leading fixtures of the American turf. The Metropolitan Handicap, with its rich endowment of $7,500 added, being the first great handicap of the eastern turf campaign to be decided, and likely to prove this year the richest of the eastern handicaps. DAILY RACING FORM commends these stakes to the earnest consideration of western owners and will be pleased to furnish entry blanks to all who may desire them.

SHERIDAN STAKES ENTRIES.

Besides being in a fashion a sequel to the American Derby, the Sheridan is annually the star event of the Glorious Fourth at Washington Park, and its decision has frequently been marked by the defeat of the Derby winner. This year it seems to have been in a measure overlooked by owners—a strange oversight in view of the fact that races with $4,000 added money are by no means numerous. This year it has seventeen less nominations than last year, but this numerical loss is fully offset by the superior quality of those entered. With Cruzados, Abe Frank, Ed Austin, Jack Demund, The Giver, Bessie Spahr, Merriment, Runnels, Arian, Memnon, Keynote, Cameron, Red Tip, McChesney, Lucien Appleby, Inventor, Compute, Belle's Commoner, Charles W. Meyer, Otis, Jaubert and Dixieline among the fifty-two nominated there is inspiring promise of an excellent race. The entries are as follows:

The Sheridan Stakes.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds; $10 to accompany the nomination, $75 additional to start; $4,000 added, of which $1,000 to the second and $500 to the third horse. A winner of a three-year-old stakes of the value of $1,500 to carry 3 lbs.; of two such stakes or one of $4,000, 5 lbs.; of three or more three-year-old stakes of the value of $1,500 (selling stakes excepted), or of one of the value of $7,000, 7 lbs. extra. Maidens allowed 7 lbs. 52 nominations. One mile and a quarter.

Last year the Young Handicap furnished one of the grandest and most desperately contested races ever witnessed and it has the material entered this year to duplicate that memorable and thrilling finish. Comment on an event of this character is useless prior to the appearance of the weights. The entries are as follows:

The Young Handicap.—For three-year-olds and upward; $10 to accompany the nomination, $75 additional to start; $5,000 added, of which $750 to the second and $250 to the third horse. Weights to be announced three days before the race. A winner of any race after the weights are posted to carry 5 lbs. extra. 77 nominations. One mile, one and one-half furlongs.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The younger division of the Bennett string, in charge of Trainer Henry McDaniels, at Memphis, numbers twenty, and among them are several which are considered of very high class. With their names and breeding the list is as follows:

King's Slave, blk. c. 2, by King's Counsel—Black Sal.
Isle of Champagne, ch. c. 2, by Seabrooke—Little Sister.

Irby, Bennett, ch. c. 2, by Cayuga—Memoria.
Canyon, ch. c. 2, by Cayuga—Sister Monica.
Mallory, ch. c. 2, by Onondaga—Miss Thomas.
Memphian, ch. c. 2, by Requit—Delphine.
Alfio, ch. c. 2, by Fonso—Flyaway.
Au Revoir, ch. c. 2, by DeBeauvoir—Bon Voyage.
Foxy Cane, ch. c. 2, by Onondaga—Patty of Cork.
The Advocate, ch. c. 2, by King's Counsel—Jane.
Pajamas, br. c. 2, by King's Counsel—Night Gown.
King's Sister, ch. f. 2, by King's Counsel—Rhetta Goode's Sister.

Don Jamie, b. f. by King's Counsel—Dot S.
King's Fancy, br. f. by King's Counsel or Dr. Walmsley—Fallonette.

King's Lady, ch. f. 2, by King's Council—Nina Louise.

Pickles, b. f. 2, by Buckmaster—Pick Up.
Orillia, b. f. 2, by Russell—Lauraine.
Arthesia, b. f. by Siddartha—Loetitia.
Aylmer Bruce, ch. f. 2, by Deceiver—Katharine Bassett.

The colt Alfio is a full brother to Malvolio, the sensational two-year-old of 1897, brought out by Johnny Fay, and which was considered a rival of the great Hamburg until he was overtaken by an illness which proved fatal. Irby Bennett is a half-brother to Miss Bennett, but he is reported in bad shape and may not be able to start until the Chicago tracks are reached by the string.

The opening of the eastern racing season at Bennings is the topic among horsemen all down through Virginia and as far west as Lexington, Ky. The season opens a few days earlier than usual this year, March 25 to April 12 being the dates assigned the Washington Jockey Club. At Charlottesville, William Garth has seven head which will be shipped to Bennings this week. They are Imperialist, All Saints, Concertina, Gayhilda and three green jumpers. All are looking well, big and strong and show the good effects of plenty of exercise and a bit of roughing it on the Virginia hills. Imperialist is also being schooled over the jumps.

*Omitted from entries.
Time, 26.51, 1:18.
Winner—Ch. m. by St. Carlo—Sister to Ruth Ryan.
Went to post at 2:12. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. February is in rare form and outclassed the field. She waited on the pacemakers to the stretch where she went to the front and won cantering. She runs best on a fast track, however. Rush Fields plowed through the difficult going with ease and appears to be worthless under other track conditions. Phil Archibald was also particularly favored by the sticky mud. Monda beat the gate but went well for only a quarter. Except the winner it was a very bad field.
Scratched—30625 Screenwell Lake, 104.
Overweights—February, 1 pound; Monda, 2.
February, show, 1 to 2. Rush Fields, show, 4 to 1. Phil Archibald, show, 6 to 5. Monda, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Russell—Naoma.
Went to post at 2:42. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Georgie West won like a good one and looks it. In close quarters next to the rail for the first sixteenth, she drew out decisively in the stretch and won easily. Mi Reina broke slowly, but closed up much ground and finished fast, but was badly used by her incompetent jockey. Jennie McGowan outstayed Elliston, which appears to be unfit and has a big lump on the left foreknee. Baby Mine was green and outrun from the start.
Scratched—30388 Irish Lassie, 105; 30524 Little Margaret, 96.
Georgie West, show, out. Mi Reina, show, out. Jennie McGowan, show, 3 to 5.

Time, 1:15.
Winner—B. h. by Deceiver—Sea View.
Went to post at 3:05. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. Sea Lion went to the front in the stretch without much effort and far outclassed the field. Scallywag was allowed to run in front and lasted further than usual. Clarando was waited with back in the field to make good in the stretch, but failed when called on. Ned Dennis, off badly and running in the deepest going, closed up well in the stretch. Fine Shot ran badly in the going, although showing a dash of early speed.
Corrected weights—Scallywag, 99; Ned Dennis, 108.
Overweights—Clarando, 2 pounds; Fine Shot, 4; Gibraltar, 3.
Sea Lion, show, out. Scallywag, show, 2 to 1. Clarando, show, 1 to 3.

Time, 1:14.
Winner—Ch. c. by Golden Dawn—Chartreuse II.
Went to post at 3:21. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Maraschino ran along leisurely behind the pacemaker and ran past them in the last furlong and could have won farther off. Bassenzo displayed a good order of speed and stayed remarkably well for him. He was easily the best of the others and is probably improving under the care of his new owner. Senator Bruce went well throughout and is also an improved horse. Chandoo broke badly and ran as if overdone. Jungfrau was used up in essaying to force a fast pace and quit almost to a walk.
Corrected weights—Bassenzo, 109.
Maraschino, show, out. Bassenzo, show, 7 to 5. Senator Bruce, show, 8 to 5.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the number of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Edward Wagner, of the Worth race track, is at Montgomery Park, Memphis, Tenn., in the interest of his association. S. C. Hildreth and P. Dunne, who are quartered there with their runners, say that they intend shipping direct from Memphis to Worth, and will commence the Chicago campaign there.

Dan Stuart's syndicate has opened a winter book on the Montgomery Handicap, with McChesney the favorite.

Jockey Vandusen, with his family, has left New Orleans for New York, en route to Hungary.

J. Humbrecht, St. Louis, Mo.—Paul Clifford's backer lost.

Went to post at 3:56. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Alzura secured a lucky start, quickly overhauled the pacemaker and went to the front with ease. Foul Play liked the going and finished fast. Ural came from a long way back and finished strongly. Patsy Dolan beat the gate but is a quarter horse, and quit almost to a standstill after going three furlongs. Halmetta was nearly left and was easing up at the end. Arigato had no chance with his jockey.

Scratched—30609 Rasp, 109; 30158 San Luton, 98; 30353 Victoria S., 89.

Overweights—Foul Play, 3 pounds.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. O'Connor dropped Nilgar in behind the pacemaker and, calling on him in the last quarter, won going away. Mission ran a steady, game race under vigorous handling. Merops broke slowly and went the entire journey in the heavier going next to the rail. Quiz is a much improved horse, displayed brilliant speed and stayed well. Hungarian, off badly and crossed on the first turn, made up much ground. Lode Star went well throughout, but prefers a sloppy track.

Winner—Ch. g. by Bolero—Jennie Yates.

Went to post at 2:00. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. McWilliams broke well in motion and ran well in hand to the stretch turn, where he easily took command and won easily up. Hayward Hunter made up much ground in the stretch run, finished strongly and won second place in the final stride. Locust Blossom ran a good race, but was tiring at the finish. Tragedy ran in improved form. St. David ran well to the stretch where he quit badly. Josie F. by no means ran her race.

Overweights—Hayward Hunter, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. g. by Portland—Dryad.

Went to post at 2:32. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Parnassus showed the most speed throughout and drew away in the stretch without trouble. Dr. Hart did his best, was all out and had all he could do to get second place. Ernest Parham was cut off on the backstretch and had to go all around his field to get up, but for which he would have been second. Little Emmy and Lady Like were raced to exhaustion in chasing Parnassus.

Winner—Br. m. by Quicklime—Elsie S., by Powhattan.

Went to post at 3:15. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Eight Bells ran a good, game race, but had all she could do to stall off Radiant Heat. The latter ran in much improved form. He came from far back, finished with a strong rush and would have been first in a few more strides. Judge Magee also ran well and finished stoutly. Sir Kingston was probably too much used in the first part of the race and had nothing left to finish with when strongly challenged. Annu showed plenty of speed, but could not last.

Went to post at 3:50. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Sevoy displayed great speed and handled his big impost splendidly, but was out to the limit at the finish. Andes came fast and strongly at the end and would probably have won in a few more strides. Pigeon Post got off well, did his best and had no mishaps. Lady Contrary showed a flash of early speed. Went to post at 4:22. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Jessie Jarboe displayed the most speed and was never in trouble. Annoy seems to be in good form and was easily the best of the others. Major Mansir made his usual strong stretch run. Frank McConnell ran well and finished stoutly. Pinar del Rio closed a big gap but the company was too good for her. Eva Rice was eased up at the finish. Star Cotton got caught in a jam in the stretch.
